Welcome

As mentioned in the last newsletter, I have been busily working on Built for Pleasure, the second book in The Drake Liaisons series.

Built for Pleasure is an interconnected standalone book in this series of three books and can be read independently, and in any order, of Built for Sin (the first book in the series- "first" being based on release date order). It follows the story of Emily and Ethan, and their ups and downs on the road to finding love. For those of you who have read Sin already, you will remember Ethan is Xander's brother, and Emily is Georgina's friend.

I try not to give away tropes, but you can assume that, like his brother Xander, Ethan is also a billionaire who doesn't do relationships. Emily is sweet and sincere and has a huge heart. You'll have to read the book to find out more. There are twists and turns, some familiar characters, and some new ones, and I hope you like them as much as I do.

Before I started writing Built for Sin, I decided I would have three books in the series. However, some of the characters from both books have a different idea about that and insist on a book of their own. Can you guess who they are?

Release date for Built for Pleasure is 30th March 2024. You will be able to pre-order on Amazon for Kindle and Paperback, so keep an eye out for pre-order date. (I'm hoping to start it two weeks prior to release).

And of course, if you read any of my books, (or any author's books), don't forget to leave a review on Amazon or Goodreads. You don't have to make a comment, just your star rating is enough, and always appreciated.

I hope you get great Pleasure from Built for Pleasure.
